KEPT SHOES AS ORNAMENTS

American Footgear Considered by Unfortunate Serbian Woman as Altogether Too Beautiful to Wear.

Anything that will keep the feet from the ground is considered a shoe in Serbia.

In the remote rural districts of the country it is said that many of the people live and die without owning a pair of shoes. In the bitterest weather they travel through mud and snow without adequate foot covering. They consider themselves fortunate if they can secure old gunny sacks or heavy cloth, which they tie about their feet with twine in winter.

The first American-made shoes they were distributed by the American Red Cross created a tremendous stir among the people of the distant villages. One old woman who had never owned a pair before took the shoes that had been given to her to her home and put them on a shelf above the fireplace. She was as pleased as a child to own them, but nothing could induce her to wear them. She said that she intended to save them for fete, or perhaps for her burial. They were "much too beautiful to be worn," she said.

Gem's Romantic History.

Truly romantic is the story of the Braganza diamond, a stone of 1667 carats, and "as large as a goose's egg," which, for more than a century, has been the proudest possession of the Portuguese crown. This amazing stone, which Mr. Streeter, the great authority on gems, has valued at $58,000,000 was picked up by three Brazilian outlaws in the half-dried bed of the Abete river, in the province of Minas Gerais.

The outlaws took the stone to the nearest village priest, who obtained access for them to the governor, into whose possession it was given. The diamond, the largest and finest hitherto found, was dispatched to Lisbon, with the result that the three outlaws received the royal pardon and a rich reward, while the padre in whose friendly offices they owed their good fortune was given high preferment in the church.

Utmost Value in Heating $99
World's Greatest Invention

New IDEAL-Arcola Radiator-Boiler

Puts IDEAL HOT WATER HEATING comfort at low cost in cottages, flats, or stores, with or without cellars.

The IDEAL-Arcola takes the place of a parlor stove. But a stove wastes much of its heat up the chimney, whereas the IDEAL-Arcola is water-jacketed, and conveys its heat by hot water circulation through pipe-connected AMERICAN Radiators stationed in the adjoining rooms. Every bit of the big volume of heat developed from each pound of fuel is therefore made useful in keeping ALL the rooms uniformly, healthfully warm. There is no coal-waste. The IDEAL-Arcola does not rust out or wear out—will outlast the building —is a genuine, permanent investment!

Shipped complete ready for immediate operation

The beauty of the IDEAL-Arcola method is that no cellar is needed. Everything is on one floor. The Arcola is placed in any room that has a chimney connection. No running to cellar. If there are two or more tenants in the building, each can have his own Arcola and make the temperature to suit his own needs—can make his own climate! If you do not wish at first to heat the entire building, buy a small size IDEAL-Arcola and later on buy extra sections for the IDEAL-Arcola and two or three more radiators to warm more rooms.

Cleanly heating—healthful heating—free from fire risk!

Unlike stoves, there are no coal-gas leaks into the living-rooms. The IDEAL-Arcola delivers the soft, radiant warmth of hot water—not the dry, burnt-out atmosphere of stove heating. There is no fire-risk to building—no danger to children—fire lasts for hours! The Arcola burns hard or soft coal, coke, gas, or wood. Brings cost of heating down to the lowest notch—and gives IDEAL comfort.

Catalog showing open views of houses, individual flats, stores, offices, etc., with the IDEAL-Arcola Boiler in position will be mailed (free). Write today.

THEY SURELY ARE WONDERFUL LITTLE WORKERS—
FREEMAN ONE-CENT-A-WORD "WANT" ADLETS

THINK TERM IS EFFEMINATE

Some Tennis Players Object to Word "Love" as at Present Employed in Scoring System.

There is talk among the overlords of tennis of finding another word than "love" to mean "nothing" in the scoring system, for, although it may surprise many to hear it, the game is sometimes spoken of as effeminate, and this bit of terminology is held responsible for the game's decline.

Nobody has ever explained why "love" means "nothing" in tennis, but there is a footnote in an old and rare book about card-playing which refers to an old Scottish word "luff," which meant "nothing," and this, perhaps, may have been somehow transferred into the game of tennis. Or, again, the term may be of far eastern origin, where a word sounding like "love" was used in the old form of tennis that was once popular in the Orient. Whether or not the terminology undergoes change, the game is in no immediate danger of falling off in popularity, and the repeated shouting of those seeming underlings across the tennis net has occasioned much innocent merriment.—Christian Science Monitor.

The Redpath Bureau will give a series of Chautauque entertainments in Maxwell Opera House during November and December. Eight entertainments will be given during a period of four weeks, afternoon and evening.

Many Saugerties people attend the pictures at Keener's and the dramatic productions at the Kingston Opera House.

Charles Sickles, leader of Sickles band, furnished 60 musicians for the Welcome Home parade in Kingston. They were split up in three bands.

Grand Master, Philip Hazelton of the Odd Fellows and Grand Marshal Daniel Snell delivered addresses at Queen Ulster Rebekah Lodge Anniversary celebration Tuesday night.

The Sawagte Millinery Co. have opened a factory in the Davis block.

Johnny Sauer who was hurt in the autobus accident in Kingston, has been nominated for collector by the Democrats, and is hustling for votes. Johnny served overseas with the American army for several months.

The trustees of the village will hold their meetings in a new place soon. A store has been located on Main street for the purpose. The trustees will turn over their meeting room in Fireman's Hall to the Hook and Ladder Co., who need more room.

The Martin Cantine Company factory shut down Wednesday to permit the employees to attend the parade in Kingston.

The Saugerties High School made a great record last year. The Regents report recently received from the state department shows of 267 examination papers sent in, only 12 were rejected. Is there a school in the Hudson valley that can equal it?

Good Word for Popular Music.
Give popular music its due. It has its place—just as has the classic. Do not look down upon it, as long as it can help you and bring you joy. It is a part of life. It is a part of the world. It is a part of the human race. It is a part of the soul. It is a part of the heart. It is a part of the mind. It is a part of the body. It is a part of the spirit. It is a part of the soul. It is a part of the heart. It is a part of the mind. It is a part of the body. It is a part of the spirit.

TRIED HARD TO SAVE PLAYMATE

Youngster's Heroic Effort to Aid Companion in Flames Unavailing.

HER LAST EXPERIMENT

Old Story of the Fatal Attraction of Fire to the Childish Mind is Repeated—Victim Dies in Delirium.

Chicago.—Despite the prompt attempts of two boys to save her, Wealthie Lunde, five-year-old girl, who played with a match, died.

The accident occurred Sunday. About seven o'clock Wealthie, who is the daughter of a railroad bookkeeper living at 1387 Norwood street, came into the house.

"It's time for you to go to bed," she was told, but Wealthie wanted a few minutes more of play. There was a great experiment which she must try before she could sleep—an experiment with a match, which she is thought to have taken from a neighbor's apartment.

Found Writching on Grass.

In about two minutes Miss Lunde, a guest of Wealthie's mother, heard screams coming from the direction of the alley. She rushed to the rear door, but by that time the sounds came from the front of the house. Hearing the sound, she found little Wealthie writching on the grass, severely burned. Two boys were bending over her.

Miles Devine, fourteen-year-old son of John J. Devine, 1248 Norwood street, was playing ball with James Fitzgerald, 1387 Norwood street, who is two years his junior.

"Suddenly," said Miles, "I heard screams, and she came running out between the houses. She was all afire."

"I'm burning," she called. "Put me out! Put me out!"

"James was the nearest to her and she ran toward him. He tripped her, and we both rolled her on the grass to smother the flame. I beat out some of it with my hands. Then a man came along and carried her into the house."

In Delirium at End.

Miles said that he had learned how to handle such cases by reading the Boy Scout Manual, although he is not a member of that organization.

Wealthie's death occurred late Monday night at the Lakeside hospital. On the operating table she told her father how she had taken a match from a neighbor's home and lit a piece of paper with it.

But there were few moments of sane consciousness. Mostly she talked

The playoff match will be held later this week.

David Lloyd George

The latest photograph of Premier Lloyd George to reach this country. It was taken shortly after the Premier's return to England from Paris. Free and happy after the months of serious work and anxiety at the Peace Conference, George returned to England. His freedom from anxiety was short-lived, however, as the railway strike, which has tied up the lifeblood of Great Britain's industry, has brought him face to face with the most serious crisis in his political career.

EVEN MONEY ON TODAY'S GAME

betting Shifts with White Sox
Victory Friday—Reds Are Not Disheartened by Shut Out.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.
Chicago, Oct. 4.—"This is another day" remarked Pat Moran shortly after sunrise. "Quite so, quite so," commented Kid Gleason. "Another day for breaking up that Cincinnati outfit."

All of which merely echoes the sentiments of the hot pollocks. The natives heartened by the White Sox triumph Friday, felt that the turn has come in the fortunes of their favorites; that now they are in full stride towards the goal of another world's championship.

But the Redland rooters, who are here in volume, merely sniff at the hurrahing of the Sox enthusiasts, and the Sox do ditto.

"Can't win all of them—we are not miracle men, Sox had to get a game somewhere—and they got it yesterday. We were beaten—but we didn't crack. You'll notice that. And the boys never quit fighting. They were up and doing every minute, but Dick Kerr stopped them. Great boy that Kerr. But he can't pitch every day."

They were shut out in the third game, which was the first game played in Chicago by a score of 3 to 0, after taking the first two games in Cincinnati.

Meanwhile, the betting which has shown about as many shifts as a prima donna has moods, is suffering another convulsion. It's even money on today's affair and only 8 to 5—down from yesterday's 2 1/2 to 1—that the Reds grab the championship hunting.

A side issue lure was the remote possibility that some of the noble athletes would "start something." The bad feeling which took birth in the second game when the Reds began to "ruze" the Sox, presages a little fist-cuffing upon the slightest provocation.

In their odd moments the noble athletes are figuring up their hoped for shares. Boosting the prices of seats this year has smashed all record records. The daily average is around the $100,000 mark—and the boys share in the spoils from the first five combats.

Despite the fact that a certain portion of the players share goes to members of the non-pennant winning clubs, there'll be enough left for the world's series performers to keep a whole pack of wolves from the family threshold.

The record payers share is slightly beyond $4,000—the portion drawn by the 1912 Red Sox. This year the winner will get approximately $5,000 each, while the loser should take unto themselves no less than $2,500 if the present gate ratio is maintained. And that's quite a flock of shekels—even for world's series entertainers.

AT THE THEATRES.

"The Kiss Burglar" At Kingston Opera House Tonight.

One of the most thrilling photographs seen here this season is "The Haunted Bedroom," starring Enid Bennett, which is the main feature at Keeney's Theatre tonight. Miss Bennett is a reporter in this picture, who is sent out to investigate a ghost mystery, and she has several adventures which keep the spectator ever on the threshold of expectancy. Also "Fatty" Arbuckle in "His Wife's Mistake" is very funny and full of good laughs. As usual The International News weekly will be shown. "The Red Lantern," the new Metro-Nazimova production, in which the famous Nazimova appears, is the special feature at Keeney's next Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday.

The star is seen in a dual role—as Mahler, the Eurasian girl, daughter of a Chinese mother and English father and as Blanche, her English half-sister. The double role gave the star great opportunity for her unusual power of character delineation. The play tells the dramatic story of the daughter of two races—a girl who, though born in a coffin shop in the slums of Peking, is educated among the European surroundings and ideals of the Christian Mission, where she adopts the faith of her father.

Coutts and Tennis' scenic spectacle "The Kiss Burglar" at the Kingston Opera House tonight. The gorgeous costumes are fashion plates of the latest design, several of which were purchased at the American Stores at the New York Custom House, and they represent the latest models that were being smuggled into this country, fresh from the dressmakers shop in Paris. The new and novel dances of which there are seventeen were staged and produced by Julian Mitchell who is considered one of America's best dancing masters. The special musical numbers, and song bits from the pen of Raymond Hubbard, of which twelve promise to become an international craze. An enormous company including the famous Peacock Alley chorus, who know how to sing and dance, make the audience wonder if the producers have cornered all the prettiest girls as well as talented in America.

"Broken Threads" will be presented by the Charles K. Champlin company at the opera house next Monday matinee and night.

Sea Lions Not Harmful.

Some time ago the conclusion was reached in Canada that the sea lions were harmless to the salmon fisheries, and a bounty was placed upon the sea lions. Since then it has been discovered that the sea lions' destruction was so slight that its general slaughter was not warranted and that they offer possibilities of considerable development in the matter of game, leather and oil and seals are worthy of protection. They are very timid and easily frightened away from the fishermen's nets.

PAIGE

The Most Beautiful Car in America

We do not make cheap cars for the simple reason that we have no faith in cheap materials or cheap workmanship. As we have said repeatedly, we believe that Pride and Self Respect have an actual market value, so we build these qualities into every Paige that leaves our plant.

With such a policy there can be only one result. Our cars go into service with an honest heritage and a limitless capacity for hard, grueling work. They endure because they are fit to endure. They prove, day by day, that they are worthy of an honorable name plate and the confidence that has been placed in them.
